

THE CENTER FOR RESEARCH IN SCIENCE PRESENTS THE SCIENCE, FAITH, AND CULTURE LECTURE SERIES

2010-11 DEFENDING THE CHRISTIAN FAITH: ANSWERING THE CHALLENGES OF A POSTMODERN ERA

Tuesday, September 21, 2010 - 7:00 pm – UTCC (Upper Turner Campus Center)

Dinesh D'Souza – Defending Christianity for Science: Answering the New Atheism

---

Tuesday, October 19, 2010 - 6:30 pm – Wyant Lecture Hall; Wilden Business Building

Doug Satre – Actions Speak Louder than Words: Defending Christianity through Service

---

Tuesday – November 16, 2010 - 6:30 pm – Wyant Lecture Hall; Wilden Business Building

Peter Enns – the Benefit of Doubt: Coming to terms with Faith in a Postmodern Era

---

Tuesday, January 11, 2011 - 6:30 pm – Munson Chapel

William Lane Craig – Historical Texts, Historical Savior: Answering Bart Ehrman's Critique of the Historical Jesus

---

Tuesday, February 8, 2011 - 6:30 pm – President's Dining Room; Turner Campus Center

Bethany Sollereeder - The Burden of Proof: The Changing Face of Evangelical Apologetics

---

Tuesday, February 22, 2011 - 6:30 pm – North Upper Turner Campus Center

Gerald Schroeder – The Age of Our Universe: Six Days, Fourteen Billion Years or Both?

---

Tuesday, April 5, 2011 - 6:30 pm – LAPC Room; Turner Campus Center

Ted Davis – Why History Matters: Debunking the Warfare View of Science and Religion

---

For more information please contact
Leslie Wickman, PhD
Center for Research in Science
626/815-6480 – www.apu.edu/cris