

SAVE THE DATE: FACULTY of COLOR LUNCHEON "Biblical & Theological Perspectives on Diversity"

Presider: Debbie Gin

Panelists: Rob Muthiah, Kay Smith, & Ken Waters

New Venue ~ East Campus!

Panelist--Rob Muthiah, Professor, Ministry, Graduate Division, School of Theology

- ◆ Muthiah focuses his teaching and research on the nature of the church, its ministry, and our cultural context. He has served as a pastor for nine years, is an active member of his local church, and has a heart for peace, justice, and multicultural issues.

Panelist--Kay Smith, Chair, Biblical Studies, Undergraduate Division, School of Theology

- ◆ Smith's published works deal with issues of Postcoloniality and Evangelicalism, Christian/Jewish relations and theology, and with gender issues. Currently she is Editor-in-Chief of a proposed book on Postcoloniality and Evangelicalism. She teaches Global Biblical Interpretation, Global Religious Studies, Gospels, Pauline Epistles, early Judaism and Christianity, and on women in the biblical tradition.

Panelist--Ken Waters, Associate Dean, Undergraduate Division, School of Theology

- ◆ Waters served as a pastor in the Methodist Church for 28 years and currently focuses his expertise on the New Testament and early Christian literature, Second Temple Judaism and the Greco-Roman World, and the personalities and backgrounds of Jesus and Paul

- ◆ Come hear from our own Network's biblical/theology experts!
- ◆ Engage in conversation around the Intersection between Bible/Theology and Diversity
- ◆ Explore why "Can't We All Just Love Each Other?" may not be enough
- ◆ Watch theological dialogue around diversity modeled

Mark your calendars now!!!!

Thursday, April 12, 2012

11:30 am - 1:00 pm

LAPC ~ East Campus

Sponsored by :
The Office of Diversity
Planning & Assessment

Please help us be good stewards of our funds and RSVP now.

Jan Wenger at: jwenger@apu.edu