Statement of Agreement with Institutional Policies

Reading and signing this statement are conditions of your admission to the American Language and Culture Institute at Azusa Pacific University. Azusa Pacific University is a Christian institution committed to a biblical system of values. This does not mean that only those from Christian backgrounds are admitted as students. It does mean, however, that every student must conform to policies that relate to the spiritual and social character of the campus environment. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A. American Language and Culture Institute students must attend one or two on-campus English lectures per week of a Christian nature. These are required as American culture activities in a Christian university setting.
- B. Unmarried cohabitation with members of the opposite sex, sexual misconduct, and homosexual activities are not permitted.
- C. Drinking or being under the influence of intoxicants and using or possessing illegal drugs while in residence at the university, or while on campus property, is not permitted.
- D. Smoking or chewing tobacco is not permissible while in residence at the university, or while on campus property.

My signature below confirms that I have read the above and understand that failure to comply with these policies will result in disciplinary action and/or dismissal from the American Language and Culture Institute.

Medical Permission

In case of illness and/or injury, I grant permission to any medical center deemed appropriate by Azusa Pacific University to examine me, treat me, or make necessary referrals to outside physicians. I also grant permission to APU and appropriate medical centers to release information regarding my health to other approved individuals, such as my sponsor or sponsoring agency.

Once you arrive on campus, you will be asked to sign the university's complete Statement of Agreement with Institutional Policies, as well as a full release of liability.
