

REZLIFE

AZUSA PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

RESIDENT ADVISOR INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

The Resident Advisor internship has been designed to provide a living and learning experience for the student who desires to grow in a unique manner. The RA experience offers students a hands-on program that combines the aspects of both intensive training and practical experience in the areas of interpersonal relating, counseling referral, confrontation, personal development, programming, and administrative responsibilities. The Resident Advisor serves as a representative of the University and is therefore expected to practice the utmost in Christian commitment, character, and integrity with residents, faculty, staff, administration, and the outside community.

While the RA experience is primarily an educational experience for the RA, it is also a student leadership position with certain expectations and requirements. Further expectations and requirements of the position can be found online*. Students who are chosen for the RA experience, and who accept this responsibility are expected to commit wholeheartedly in each of the areas described.
