

Larry W. Caldwell

Email: lwald@cs.com

Education

B.A. (History and Bible) - Bethel College, St. Paul, MN

M.Div. (OT and NT) - Bethel Theological Seminary, St. Paul, MN

Th.M. (Mission Theology) - Fuller Theological Seminary SWM, Pasadena, CA

Ph.D. (Intercultural Studies) - Fuller Theological Seminary SWM, Pasadena, CA

Professional Experience

Instructor of Biblical Studies and Languages, Baptist Theological College, Cebu, Philippines, 1980-1981

Instructor of Biblical Studies, Bethel College, St. Paul, MN, 1982

Instructor of English, Harbin Educational College, Harbin, Peoples Republic of China, 1983-1984

Assistant Professor of Religious Studies and Cross-Cultural Theology, William Carey International University, Pasadena, CA, 1984-1989

Director of the "Year of Bible and Missions" Certificate Program, U.S. Center for World Mission, Pasadena, CA, 1985-1989

Visiting Professor of Missions, Bethel Theological Seminary-West, San Diego, CA, 1988

Professor of Missions and Hermeneutics, Asian Theological Seminary, Manila, Philippines, 1991-Present

Director, Unreached Peoples Missionary Training Center, Manila, Philippines, 1995-2005

Visiting Professor of Missions, Bethel Theological Seminary, St. Paul, MN, 1995-Present

Adjunct Associate Professor of Missions, Fuller Theological Seminary SWM, Pasadena, CA, 1995-Present

Director, Doctor of Missiology (D.Miss.) Program, Asia Graduate School of Theology- Philippines, Manila, Philippines, 1997-Present

Adjunct Professor of Missions, Northeast Center for Training and Research, Shillong, India, 2002-Present

Academic Dean, Asian Theological Seminary, Manila, Philippines, 2003-Present

Editor, Journal of Asian Mission, 2005-Present