ERNEST L. BOYER SR. TEACHER SCHOLARSHIP

AZUSA PACIFIC
UNIVERSITY

This scholarship is in memory of the late Ernest Boyer, the noted educator who served as President of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. His friends and family established a fund to provide awards for students who are planning careers as teachers. Azusa Pacific University is honored to be one of five institutions selected to provide an annual award. Students enrolled in a Teaching Credential Program are eligible to apply. Criteria include Dr. Boyer's values, including commitments to community, character, and service; and creating a climate for learning.

Eligibility

You qualify if you will be enrolled full-time in a Teacher Education Program at APU in Fall 2019.

Award

The Boyer Foundation provides $1500 and APU matches that amount for a total of $3000.

Application Process

Complete the application below and write a one- to two-page double-spaced essay on why you want to become a teacher and the types of schools and students you desire to serve. Respond to the Boyer values identified above at the Boyer Foundation website: https://www.messiah.edu/boyer\_center

Return this completed application with essay to: APU, Graduate and Professional Student Financial Services, PO Box 7000, Azusa CA 91702 or email to scholarships@apu.edu

Application deadline is June 10, 2019. Applicants will receive notification of the outcome by July 10, 2019.
