Mission Statement

Azusa Pacific University is an evangelical Christian community of disciples and scholars who seek to advance the work of God in the world through academic excellence in liberal arts and professional programs of higher education that encourage students to develop a Christian perspective of truth and life.

Azusa Pacific University Statement of Faith

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God.

We believe that there is one God, Creator of heaven and earth, eternally existent in three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return to power and glory.

We believe in the fall and consequent total moral depravity of humanity, resulting in our exceeding sinfulness and lost estate, and necessitating our regeneration by the Holy Spirit.

We believe in the present and continuing ministry of sanctification by the Holy Spirit by whose infilling the believing Christian is cleansed and empowered for a life of holiness and service.

We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; those who are saved to the resurrection of life and those who are lost to the resurrection of damnation.

We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Daily Living Expectations

The following fundamentals are held to be essential, and the university expects faculty and staff not only to believe in them, but to practice them in daily living:

- A caring, effective love both to God and humanity
- A Christlike unity and acceptance among believers
- A lifestyle dedicated to God's will in society
- A growing, victorious state of mind because of the indwelling Christ
- A daily affirmation of Christ as Lord
- A willingness to serve the Lord, even when it involves sacrifice
- A desire to be sensitive to the personal work of the Holy Spirit
- A working faith in God's promises for all needs and daily life situations
- A witness for Christ without hypocrisy
- A firm, committed desire to be God's person

Do you hold without reservation the conservative, evangelical interpretation of the Christian faith as presented by the above statements?  Yes  No

I certify that the above information is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge. If my application is accepted and employment granted, I agree to abide by the policies, standards, and regulations at Azusa Pacific University and respect the ideals, principles, and traditions it upholds as a Christian institution of higher learning. I authorize the university to verify the information I have provided. I further understand that this information will be relied upon by the officials of the University in determining my employment status and that the submission of false information is grounds for rejection of my application, withdrawal of an employment offer, dismissal from the University, and/or other disciplinary action.

Please provide an essay addressing the following:

- Because all faculty members are expected to sign the statement of faith, please provide a written response to the statement. This response should reflect your own beliefs and faith practices, and should indicate to what extent you are in agreement with the university's statement of faith.
- As Christ-centered university, there is an intentional effort to integrate the Christian faith within each of the disciplines taught. As you think about teaching within your discipline, how will you integrate your faith with the content of your discipline?
- After reading the mission statement and statement of faith, please describe how you see yourself fitting with the mission and purpose of APU. What do you find most attractive about teaching at APU? What do you see as your major contribution to furthering the mission of the university?
- Describe your relationship with Jesus Christ and your level of participation in your church/faith community.
