

Chapel Band Job Description

Playing an instrument or singing in one of the five chapel bands on campus. The time commitment for this position is a rehearsal once a week to prepare for the following weeks chapels (the rehearsal time is decided between the band members), and depending on the band, playing for your specified weekly chapel(s).

There are two, three day Chapel Band Retreats required for this position. The Fall Retreat is in the middle of August and the Spring Retreat is at the beginning of January, before the end of Winter Break.

Students in this position are required to put in the necessary practice time outside of the designated band rehearsal to be prepared for each chapel.

First year students can earn up to 60 ministry credits. After the first year, students can start receiving minimum wage.
