

Curriculum Vitae

Bryan Lamkin

Campus Address:

Department of History
Azusa Pacific University
P.O. Box 7000
Azusa, CA 91702-7000
(626) 815-6000, Ext. 3368
E-mail: blamkin@apu.edu

---

POSITION:

Professor of History, Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA

EDUCATION:

- 1997            University of California, Riverside, CA
                  Ph.D. in American History
                  Major Field: Nineteenth-Century United States
                  Minor Field: Colonial America
                  Dissertation: From Emigrant to Immigrant: The Personal Experiences of German and Irish Immigrants in Pennsylvania, 1800-1860
- 1990            Trinity International University, Deerfield, IL
                  Master of Divinity
- 1989            Trinity International University, Deerfield, IL
                  M.A. in Church History
                  Master's Thesis: Princetonian Participation in the Nativist Movement in Ante-Bellum America
- 1981            University of Washington, Seattle, WA
                  B.A. in Health Education

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

- 2008-present    Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA
                  Professor of History
- 2002-2008      Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA
                  Associate Professor of History
- 1998-2002      Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA
                  Assistant Professor of History: Teach entire range of lower- and upper-division United States history courses
- 1996-1998      Riverside Community College, Riverside, CA
                  Adjunct Instructor: Taught survey courses in United States history, from the colonial-era to the present; taught western & world civilizations survey courses from ancient times to the present

TEACHING EXPERIENCE, cont.

- 1996-1997      Chaffey Community College, Rancho Cucamonga, CA
Adjunct Instructor: Taught survey courses in United States history, from the colonial-era to the present
- 1995            San Bernardino Valley College, San Bernardino, CA
Adjunct Instructor: Taught survey courses in United States history, from the colonial-era to 1877
- 1995-1998     California State University, San Bernardino, CA
Adjunct Instructor: Taught survey courses in United States history, from the colonial-era to the present; taught upper-division course, "The Evolution of American Democracy"
- 1991-1994     University of California, Riverside, CA
Teaching Assistant: Led small-group discussion sections for entire range of United States and World History survey courses; administered exams, paper assignments, and grades
- 1994            San Diego State University, San Diego, CA
Adjunct Instructor: Taught world history survey course, ancient-1650 C.E.
- 1991            University of California, Riverside, CA
Reader: Helped facilitate the American West course; mentored students, graded exams and papers

TEACHING AREAS/COURSES TAUGHT:

U. S. History Survey: Colonial to Present	Emergence of Modern America
Civil War and Reconstruction	Modern America
History of Religion in America	U. S. Ethnic and Immigration History
The American West	World Civilizations Survey
Colonial America	Web-based History Survey
The Revolution and the Republic	Senior Seminar
History of California	Freshman Writing

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION:

- "The Irish in the West: Creating a Database." Paper presented at the American Conference of Irish Studies Western Regional Conference, Tacoma WA, October 2007.
- Panel Moderator, "Political Realities of the Second World War." Biennial Undergraduate Meeting of the Conference on Faith and History, Shawnee, OK, September 2006.
- "The Concept of 'Chosen' as a Faith-Integration Strategy in the Classroom." Paper presented at Biennial Meeting of the Conference on Faith and History, Shawnee, OK, September 2006.
- Advanced Oral History Institute, August 14-18, 2006. Sponsored by the Regional Oral History Office, University of California, Berkeley.

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION, cont.

“The Presidential Signatures Project.” Poster session at Common Day of Learning. Azusa Pacific University, Spring 2006.

“In Search of a Respectable Situation”: The Personal Labor Experiences of German and Irish Immigrants in Pennsylvania, 1800-1860.” Paper presented at the Organization of American Historians Annual Conference, Memphis, TN, April 2003.

Participant in College of Liberal Arts and Sciences Seminar in the Liberal Arts. Glendora, CA, June 2001 and 2002.

“Who Says History Has to be Boring: Multimedia Development of the U.S. History Survey Course.” Poster session at Common Day of Learning. Azusa Pacific University, Spring 2001.

“Nativism in the Early Republic: Was Religious Intolerance Consistent with Political Democracy?” Paper presented at the Conference on Faith and History, West Coast Branch. Azusa Pacific University, April 2001.

“In God We Trust: the Religious Experiences of German and Irish Immigrants in Pennsylvania, 1800-1860” Paper presented at the Conference on Faith and History, West Coast Branch. Fresno, CA, April 2000.

BOOK REVIEWS:

Review of Atlantic History: Concepts and Contours, by Bernard Bailyn. Fides et Historia 39 (Winter/Spring 2007): 115-116.

Review of The Search for Social Salvation: Social Christianity and America, 1880-1925, by Gary Scott Smith. Fides et Historia 33 (Summer/Fall 2001): 124-125.

GRANTS AND AWARDS:

- 2009 Faculty Research Council Grant: Irish Letter Database Project
- 2006 Canyon City Foundation Grant: Azusa Woman’s Club Oral History Project
- 2006 Faculty Research Council Grant: Irish Letter Database Project
- 2006 Chase A. Sawtell Inspirational Faculty Award
- 2006 Service Learning Cornerstones Award
- 2004 Creative Education Grant: The Presidential Signatures Project
- 2000 Teaching Technology Learning Grant: Web-based book review project
- 1999 Faculty Research Council Grant: Antebellum PA Immigrants Research
- 1998, 1999 Distance Learning Grant: On-line U.S. history survey course development
- 1998 Creative Education Grant: Multimedia development of U.S. history survey
- 1993, 1994 History Department Fellow, University of California, Riverside
- 1992, 1993 Humanities Graduate Student Research Grant, University of California, Riverside
- 1989 T. B. Madsen Award for outstanding thesis in Church History, Trinity International University

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

Organization of American Historians
American Historical Association
Immigration and Ethnic History Society
The Conference on Faith and History
American Conference on Irish Studies

INSTITUTIONAL SERVICE:

General Studies Director, 2008-present
Project Director, Azusa Woman's Club Oral History Project, 2005-present
Faculty Evaluation Council, 2005-present
Primary Author, Department of History and Political Science Five-year Review, 2005
Academic Coordinator, Presidential Signatures Project, 2003-present
Chairman, Appointment, Rank, and Contract Review Board, 2003-2006
Comprehensive Faculty Evaluation Program Committee, 2002-present
Appointment, Rank, and Contract Review Board, 2000-2003
Common Day of Learning Session, 2000, 2001, 2006
Faculty Panel Member for Preview Days, 2001-2006
Honors Banquet Keynote Speaker, 2001, 2002
Search Committee for Director of Distance and Continuing Education, 2001
Acting Chairman, Department of History and Political Science, 2001-2002
Chairman, World History Search Committee, 2001 and 2002-2004
Organized and Hosted Regional Meeting of Conference on Faith & History, 2001
Faculty Mentor in Department of History and Political Science, 2001
Program Review Committee for Computer Science Department, 2000-2001
Master of Arts Candidate Mentor, Norwich University of Vermont, 1999-2000

WORKS IN PROGRESS/AWAITING PUBLICATION:

“The Concept of ‘Chosen’ as a Faith Integration Strategy.” Working on final draft for Fides et Historia. Anticipated completion, Summer 2009.

Article for the Nevada Historical Society Quarterly on Irish immigrant Denis Hurley—a resident of Carson City, Nevada from 1873-1938.

The Azusa Woman's Club Oral History Project: scholarly journal article. Anticipated completion, Spring 2010.

“The Irish in the West: The Personal Experiences of 19th-Century Irish Immigrants.” Ongoing monograph project based on a database collection of letters, diaries, and reminiscences of Irish immigrants who settled in the western states/territories in the 19th century.

References Available upon Request