American Family Housing, Midway City, CA
PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Reporting to the Board of Directors, developed the organizational vision, programmatic and financial strategies to guide American Family Housing's (AFH) future while ensuring the successful day-to-day operations of the agency. Key challenges were to transition the agency from a founder of 30 years creating a new strategic direction and long-term sustainable model.

- Managed housing development budget of 6.7 million (100% grant funded) and organizational budget of 4.4 million (25% grant funded)
- Improved internal structures and brought agency into compliance in human resources, ACA regulations, technology (i.e. HIPAA) and confidentiality best practices, finance and internal controls.
- Reduced expenses by focusing on risk mitigation in areas such as insurance coverages.
- Implemented evidenced based practices and aligned housing and services with current trends in the field.
- Instituted formal training protocols and quality improvement program and increased expertise and depth of multi-disciplinary team to improve service delivery.
- Expanded partnerships with municipalities, funders and other non-profits to increase reach of organization and ensure effective coordination of housing with community.
- Increased visibility of agency through rebranding, new website, improved social media, and new volunteer program.
- Established property management protocols and tracking while completing portfolio assessment of 52 owned properties.
- Commenced 3 new development projects to the pipeline to add 50 new units of affordable housing to the agency's portfolio in 2016.
- Provided support to Board of Directors adding 5 new Board members and the improved operations of Board Committees.
- Strategically positioning AFH to be a leader in ending homelessness in Southern California through demonstrated outcomes and performance.

- Established fiscal health and stability to 10-million-dollar corporation as follows: 50% revenue growth, 44% increase in net assets, and 53% reduction in liabilities while improving infrastructure and increasing number of individuals served.
- Provided leadership and support to the Board of Directors in raising $1.325 million dollars in private and public funds FY14 with a 65% increase of individual donor contributions and 45% foundation increase contributions FY13 to FY14.

- Increase in number and size of contracts with government entities with a 73% increase in contract revenue from FY14 to FY15.
- Refocused and prioritized the agency strategic goals to ensure the attainment of its mission-driven objectives. The number of people served during the realignment increased by 100% while ensuring programs consistently delivered evidence-based services.
- Increased employee retention and improved company morale (100+ employees) by ensuring professionalism and productive capacity of the organization.
- Provided vision and leadership to the community and acted as subject matter expert at public and private events throughout California and across U.S.
- Developed strategic and operational plans with the Board of Directors and management by setting clear goals, objectives and measures to drive performance and community service.
- Restructured the organization and currently directly supervised the COO, CPO, CFO, Director of External Relations, and Director of Development.
- Provided leadership and oversight of new program development and community partnerships – assuring consistency with Lamp mission, goals and strategic plan.
- Brought agency into compliance with all applicable federal, state, city and county and funder regulations through clear outcome measures and reporting and a culture of accountability.
- Built and maintained strong relationships with individuals, government officials, and organizations in the greater Los Angeles community and providing policy recommendations to high ranking government officials from HUD-Washington DC, members of Congress, and the LA City and County leadership.

ADDENDUM

Potter's Lane

American Family Housing is soon to break ground on an innovative project in Midway City, called Potter's Lane. Estimated for completion in 2016, the energy-efficient and sustainable housing site will fulfill one of the community's greatest needs: permanent housing for chronically homeless veterans.
