

HOW TO: Read Your 2020 Statement

This is a sample monthly statement. Information varies by student.

Please visit www.apu.edu/cashnet to view monthly statements. If you have not done so, please update your authorized payers in CASHNet so they may continue to receive monthly statement notifications and make payments on your behalf.

1 APU student ID number. This is usually the fastest way to identify you, so it's helpful to have this number on hand when calling or visiting The Undergraduate Enrollment Services Center.

2 Payment methods. The quickest and easiest method is to pay online, using CASHNet by visiting: apu.edu/cashnet/

3 This is the mailing address we have on record for you. If you need to correct it, please log on to home.apu.edu. If you prefer to mail in your payment, please send it to the APU Cashier's address.

4 This table shows the breakdown of the Balance Due divided evenly according to each payment due date. There are 4 due dates, each on the 1st of the month from January – April 2020. If you selected 5 Pay, you have an additional date of December 10th. Installment amounts are subject to change as charges are added or pending aid is adjusted.

5 This is a list of the transactions in the current semester. "PRIOR TERM" refers to the sum of all charges and payments to your account which occurred in previous semesters. If an adjustment was made to a prior semester, it will not be listed in the details of this statement. It is already accounted for in the PRIOR TERM BALANCE FORWARD.

6 Pending financial aid. Shortly after January 21, 2020, your financial aid will disburse to your APU student account (presuming your financial aid file is complete). Outside aid will not be reflected until it is actually received by the university.
