As a private not-for-profit religiously affiliated university, faculty and staff at APU endorse a Christian statement of faith. Students, however, students are not required to endorse any statement of faith or policies related to their religious identity. The APU PsyD program holds Diversity as one of our areas of special emphasis; as such, the APU PsyD program strives to recruit and support students from diverse backgrounds. https://www.apu.edu/about/faithandlearning/

Also, please describe or provide a link to program admissions policies that allow students to enter with credit for prior graduate work, and the expected implications for time to completion. Please indicate NA if not applicable:

12 units of Master's level or doctoral level coursework in Clinical Psychology or a closely related field may be transferred into the PsyD program (with the possibility of petitioning for an additional 3 units). Transfer credit does not shorten the length of the APU PsyD program. All requests are reviewed on a course by course basis and require approval from the PsyD Program Director. All syllabi of master's level coursework are reviewed by the PsyD Program Director to ensure that their content is sufficient to transfer in lieu of PsyD coursework.
