COMMITMENT TO FRIENDS

How long have you been a part of a Friends ministry? _____

What are your future plans with regard to ministry among Friends? _____

The Friends Center does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, or gender in any of its policies, practices, or procedures.

Applicant must be accepted into the Haggard Graduate School of Theology at Azusa Pacific University and enrolled in a graduate degree program for credit.

Applications are reviewed by the Scholarship Committee of the Friends Center Board and are due August 1.

Scholarships will be awarded based upon the following criteria:

- Financial need of the applicant
- Commitment to ministry among Friends
- Availability of scholarship funds

The applicant must complete the semester for which the scholarship is awarded. If the applicant withdraws from classes or leaves ministry among Friends to minister among a denomination, the funds are returned to the Friends Center scholarship fund.

Announcement of scholarship award will be made to the applicant by the Friends Center director.

The amount of award is applied toward the recipient's finance account with Azusa Pacific University.

I understand that the Friends Center scholarship is awarded on the basis of financial need, ministry commitment, and availability of funds. I have answered the questions to the best of the knowledge and I understand the qualifications listed above. I further understand that the award is withdrawn if the semester is not completed.
