My Faith

Azusa Pacific University is an institution built on Four Cornerstones: Christ, Transformational Scholarship, Life-Giving Community, and Sacrificial Service. These four components define why APU exists.

Please read about the Four Cornerstones, and then answer the questions that follow.

- · Belief in Christ and our understanding of God's love are central to all that we think and do, and who we are.
- We are called to scholarship permeated by our Christian faith, teaching excellence, and the education of the whole person through the liberal arts.
- We believe in a richly diverse community and the worth of each individual. Our mission is to encourage each student to fulfill his or her great potential and, in turn, encourage others.
- Service is at the heart of our local and international outreach and missions. Our students often find these experiences to be among the greatest of their lives.

Are you readily willing to embrace these Four Cornerstones as you consider the educational, social, and spiritual environment at Azusa Pacific University?

Statement of Agreement with Institutional Policy

Carefully reading and agreeing to this statement on your application are conditions of your admission to Azusa Pacific University.

APU's mission includes cultivating in each student the academic skills required for a degree and the academic integrity and moral responsibility integral to a sound Christian education. A breach of academic integrity is fundamentally inconsistent with the mission of APU.

APU is also committed to a biblical system of values. APU regards each student as a spiritual, emotional, social, and intellectual being and provides a meaningful education through classes, chapel services, and informal, small-group meetings. Spiritual knowledge and growth are an important part of each student's experience at APU.

While APU is a distinctively Christian institution, students do not have to be Christians to be admitted. However, every student is encouraged to be open to learning about the Christian faith and expected to uphold the school's policies and regulations. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- 1 Specifically, all students pledge: "As a student at this Christ-centered university, I will uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. I will not lie, cheat, or steal in my academic endeavors, nor will I accept the actions of those who do. I will conduct myself responsibly and honorably in all my academic activities as an Azusa Pacific University student." A complete copy of the academic integrity policy is available on the university website at www.apu.edu/registrar/undergraduate/policies/integrity/.
- 2 Attendance at chapel services three times per week is mandatory for all undergraduate students. Students may choose from various options offered throughout the week.
- 3 In order to graduate with a bachelor's degree from the university, one must complete 18-21 units within Haggard School of Theology (varies depending on chosen major course of study). A student must also complete 120 ministry credits (approximately 120 hours) of nonclassroom Christian or community service in the surrounding area. (These requirements are prorated for transfer students.)
- 4 Unmarried cohabitation with members of the opposite sex, sexual misconduct, and homosexual activities are unacceptable behaviors for students enrolled at APU.
- 5 Students possessing, distributing, and/or using alcohol, narcotics, or other intoxicants on university premises or at university-sponsored activities will be subject to judicial action. The university also reserves the right to confront behavior that is detrimental to the student, the community, the university, and/or others, regardless of the location or age of the student.
- 6 Smoking or chewing tobacco is not permissible on the APU campus at any time.

If admitted to APU, you are expected to abide by the rules and regulations of the university as contained in the current undergraduate Catalog, Student Handbook, and departmental brochures in addition to what is described above. If there is a dispute between you and the university, the catalog outlines the procedure for making an appeal. It is your responsibility to be aware of the policies outlined in the current undergraduate Catalog.

Azusa Pacific University's Annual Security Report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus property owned or controlled by Azusa Pacific University, and on public property within, or immediately accessible from, the campus. The report includes institutional policies concerning campus security, such as sexual assault and other matters. You can obtain a copy of this report by contacting the Department of Campus Safety at (626) 815-3898 or online at www.apu.edu/campussafety/securityreport/.
