- This form is NOT an application for re-enrollment at Azusa Pacific University. Re-enrollment is a separate application process and I must be re-admitted to the university before I may enroll in classes. Upon completion of the academic inquiry process, I have the option to request that this form act as my application for re-enrollment.
- I understand that if I have been away for more than two semesters, I will be subject to new catalog requirements.
- If I decide to continue with the application for re-enrollment, I must have a zero balance on my APU account and have no defaulted loans before I can be re-admitted.
- In order to be reviewed by the Admissions Committee for re-enrollment, I must submit official transcripts from every school attended during my time away from Azusa Pacific University.
- In order to be re-admitted to Azusa Pacific University, I must receive clearance from the offices of Student Life, Student Financial Services, and Residence Life. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions will contact these offices for clearances on my behalf.
- I understand that if I have filed an Intent to Graduate form and have been away from Azusa Pacific University for more than two years, I am no longer under the same catalog and therefore, may need additional requirements to complete my degree.
- I certify that the information on this form is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge. If I decide to continue with the re-enrollment application and I am accepted to the university, I agree to abide by the policies, standards, and regulations at Azusa Pacific University and respect the ideals, principles, and traditions it upholds as a Christian institution of higher learning. I further understand that this information will be relied upon by the officials of the university in determining my admission status and that the submission of false information is grounds for rejection of my re-enrollment application, withdrawal of an offer of acceptance, dismissal from the university, revocation of a degree, and/or other disciplinary action.
