Student Records Privacy (FERPA)
By the time of fall registration, notice must be distributed to current students and parents of a list of information the university is required to provide under the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), together with a statement of the procedures required to obtain such information. Distribution to students is by any means reasonably likely to inform them.

Drum and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Program

On an annual basis, policies and information on the university’s drug and alcohol abuse prevention must be distributed to students and employees. Students who enroll or employees who are hired after the annual distribution must also receive the information.

In addition, the university must make available, upon request, to the Department of Education and to the public, the above information distributed to students and employees as well as the results of a biennial review of the university’s drug and alcohol abuse prevention program.

Campus Security Act of 1990

The Campus Security Act requires colleges to report campus crime statistics and security measures to all students and employees by October 1 of each year. The annual security report must be submitted to the Secretary of the Department of Education (via the Internet) by October 15 of each year.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)
Each educational agency or institution shall annually notify students currently in attendance of their rights under FERPA. Notification of these rights concurrent with fall registration is suggested, as the student needs to be told what information the student has identified as directory information and notified of his/her opportunity to place a hold on release of directory information.
