

This scholarship is in honor of the late Dr. Alice V. Watkins, former dean of the School of Education at APU. Dr. Watkins was passionate in encouraging students in their teacher preparation. The intent of this scholarship is to assist students enrolled in a Multiple Subject, Single Subject, or Special Education credential program.

Eligibility

- Admission to the Multiple Subject, Single Subject, or Special Education credential program and enrollment in the term of award
- Demonstrated financial need based on current FAFSA. Current FAFSA must be complete prior to scholarship application deadline
- Preference is given to current students who are either unemployed or employed part-time

Award

- Award amounts are based on the endowed fund amount and may vary year to year. Awards range from $500 to $1,000 and are available each Fall and Spring
- Scholarship posted directly into student account following the last day to enroll in award term
- This scholarship may adjust your financial aid offer. For assistance, check with your Student Account Counselor

Application Process

- Complete this application and return to scholarships@apu.edu
- Write a brief (one- to two-page, double-spaced) essay describing long-term goals, professional dreams, prospective contributions to your teaching career, and need for financial assistance.
- Application deadline is August 5 for Fall and November 12 for Spring. Applicants will receive notification of the outcome after the committee has met.
