

HOW TO: Read Your 2020 Statement

This is a sample monthly statement. Information varies by student.

Please visit www.apu.edu/cashnet to view monthly statements. If you have not done so, please update your authorized payers in CASHNet so they may continue to receive monthly statement notifications and make payments on your behalf.

1 APU student ID number. This is usually the fastest way to identify you, so it's helpful to have this number on hand when calling or visiting The Undergraduate Enrollment Services Center.

2 Payment methods. The quickest and easiest method is to pay online, using CASHNet by visiting: apu.edu/cashnet/

3 This is the mailing address we have on record for you. If you need to correct it, please log on to home.apu.edu. If you prefer to mail in your payment, please send it to the APU Cashier's address.

4 This table shows the breakdown of the Balance Due divided evenly according to each payment due date. There are 4 due dates, each on the 1st of the month from August – November 2020. Installment amounts are subject to change as charges are added or pending aid is adjusted.

5 This is a list of the transactions in the current semester. "PRIOR TERM" refers to the sum of all charges and payments to your account which occurred in previous semesters. If an adjustment was made to a prior semester, it will not be listed in the details of this statement. It is already accounted for in the **PRIOR TERM BALANCE FORWARD**.

6 Pending financial aid. Shortly after September 15, 2020, your financial aid will disburse to your APU student account (presuming your financial aid file is complete). Outside aid will not be reflected until it is actually received by the university.

7 Important monthly reminders and contact information for the Undergraduate Enrollment Services Center.

* Charges for each semester are distributed into monthly payments, also known as installment amounts. Payments are added to your student account or as you change the number of units you are enrolled in throughout the semester. You can pay off the full semester charges at any time. * Payments can be made by electronic check (ACH), check, or with cash or debit card in person at a cashier's station. Please make checks payable to Azusa Pacific University with the student's APU ID number written on the check. * You can pay by electronic check (ACH) or credit card through Cashnet. Cashnet accepts Visa, Mastercard, Discover, and American Express. To use the APU Mobile app, go to Financials &gt; Billing and Payment. * International students can pay on-line in their own currency through Flywire. This is usually more affordable for international payments. To access Flywire, go to https://apu.flywire.com. * Set up automatic payments in Cashnet, renewable each semester, to avoid late payments. * To view your most recent account activity, go to "Your Account" on your Cashnet homepage.
