

Congratulations, APU Class of 2020!

We are so proud to celebrate this important milestone with you. You have run a good race, persevering through the challenges—some expected, others unforeseen—and meeting each one with dignity and hard work. You have shown continued faith and determination every step of the way. May your time at APU serve as a strong foundation for the difference you will make in this world.

CANDIDATES FOR THE BACHELOR OF ARTS, BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS, BACHELOR OF MUSIC, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING, AND BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK

HONOR SOCIETIES

Sociedades de Honor

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi is a national honor society that admits students from all academic disciplines. Members are elected by the faculty of their schools as ranking in the top 10 percent of undergraduate juniors and seniors, graduate students, and professional students. Qualifying students from APU were inducted into the California Gamma Chapter of Alpha Chi. These Alpha Chi inductees can be identified by the blue and green cords worn on their graduation apparel.

Alexa Sheridan Felberg

Alpha Epsilon Delta

Alpha Epsilon Delta is the National Health Preprofessional Honor Society, dedicated to the encouragement and recognition of excellence in preprofessional health scholarship. The society welcomes all students engaged in the pursuit of professional development, provides a forum for students with common interests, and extends a program of service to benefit the university community. This society is also interdisciplinary and includes a variety of majors and career interests in the field of health care, including mental health, social work, nutrition, health education, sports medicine, physical therapy, nursing, and allopathic/osteopathic physicians.

Brianna Christine Frederick

Alpha Phi Sigma

Alpha Phi Sigma was established in 1941 to recognize student excellence in the fields of criminal justice and law. The goal of the honors society is to provide resources for professional opportunities including grants and scholarships for current students, career development, and honors during graduation. Membership requires undergraduate students to declare criminal justice as their major; have completed three full-time college semesters; carry a cumulative GPA of 3.2; and have a minimum of four courses in the criminal justice major. Graduate students are required to be enrolled in a graduate program in criminal justice or related field; have completed four courses; have a minimum GPA of 3.4 or rank in the upper 25 percent of their class.

Brandi N. Garcia

Honors Scholars

Honors Scholars have completed a minimum of 24 units of their college education in the Honors College seminars designed by outstanding professors and created for greater depth, intensity, intellectual rigor, critical thinking, and synthesis of the subject. Several scholars chose to study abroad, complete undergraduate research projects, and participate in regional, national, and international conferences. Honors Scholars can be identified by the gold medallions worn with their graduation apparel.

Kappa Tau Alpha

Kappa Tau Alpha is a college honor society that recognizes academic excellence and promotes scholarship in journalism and mass communication. Membership must be earned by excellence in academic work at one of the colleges and universities that have chapters. Selection for membership is a mark of highest distinction and honor. The seventh oldest national honor society, Kappa Tau Alpha was founded at the University of Missouri in 1910 at the world's first school of journalism. The Society has 96 chapters and has inducted 75,000 outstanding students since its founding in 1910. Kappa Tau Alpha is a non-profit (501-c-3) organization and is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies, the nation's only certifying agency for college and university honor societies.

Ruby Trina McAuliffe

Lambda Pi Eta

Lambda Pi Eta is the official honor society of the National Communication Association and a member of the prestigious Association of College Honor Societies. Each member must maintain an exceptional grade-point average and display a commitment to the field of communication. The organization promotes outstanding scholastic achievement in communication studies and explores professional options. Lambda Pi Eta inductees can be identified by the red and white chords worn with their graduation apparel.

Phi Alpha

Eta Iota is the local chapter of the Phi Alpha national social work honor society. Phi Alpha provides a closer bond among social work students and promotes humanitarian goals and ideals. It fosters high academic standards for social work students and invites into membership those who have attained excellence in scholarship and service. To qualify for membership, a candidate must be declared social work major, have senior status, have at least 90 semester hours of general and departmental coursework, exhibit personal and professional integrity, and have a minimum grade-point average of 3.6 in all coursework. At the graduate level, a graduate social work student must have obtained a minimum of 3.6 GPA in the Master of Social Work program at the end of the semester prior to graduation.

Phi Alpha Theta

Alpha Omicron Tau is APU's chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honor Society. Established in 1921 at the University of Arkansas and open to undergraduates, graduate students, and history professors, Phi Alpha Theta's mission is to promote the study of history through the encouragement of research, good teaching, publication, and the exchange of learning and ideas among historians. Membership in Phi Alpha Theta is lifetime and is not limited to History majors. Requirements include a one-time initiation fee, a minimum of 12 semester hours (4 courses) in History, and a minimum GPA of 3.1 in History and an overall GPA of 3.0 or better.

Pi Sigma Alpha

Pi Sigma Alpha, the National Political Science Honor Society, is the only honor society for college and university students of government in the United States and strives to stimulate scholarship and intelligent interest in political science. The APU Chapter, Alpha Eta Delta, was established in 2011.

Giselle Elizabeth Rojas

Psi Chi

Psi Chi is an international honor society whose purpose shall be to encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship of the individual members in all fields, particularly in psychology, and to advance the science of psychology. The mission of Psi Chi is to produce a well-educated, ethical, and socially responsible member committed to contributing to the science and profession of psychology and to society in general. In pursuit of our mission we will: 1) Advance the science and profession of psychology, 2) Promote an educational experience consistent with the mission, 3) Promote ethical and socially responsible members and leaders, 4) Define and establish an organizational structure that promotes our mission 5) Recognize and foster the contributions that diversity makes to the science and practice of psychology.
