Glendora Barnes & Noble Hosts First-Ever APU Faculty Book Signing

It was an exciting day for the local community when the new Barnes & Noble opened, just a few miles east of campus in Glendora. Finally, a bookstore close to home! Even more exciting—the opening of the bookstore created an opportunity for the university to host its first-ever book signing there, featuring five faculty authors on November 14.

The evening event allowed guests to hear from and meet each of the authors, including Joseph Bonta, Ph.D., author of Silent手持; Diana Pavlac Glyer, Ph.D., author of A Greek for Every Day: Learning the Language of Jesus Christ; and Brandon Stirm ’08, M.A. ’04, and Cindy Hoff, with leadership from the Glendora Barnes & Noble.

The evening event allowed guests to hear from and meet each of the authors, including Joseph Bonta, Ph.D., author of Silent手持; Diana Pavlac Glyer, Ph.D., author of A Greek for Every Day: Learning the Language of Jesus Christ; and Brandon Stirm ’08, M.A. ’04, and Cindy Hoff, with leadership from the Glendora Barnes & Noble.

A NOVEMBER 20, 2007 MEN’S AND WOMEN’S SOCCER FOCUS Men’s Soccer claimed its first NAIA Men’s Soccer National Championship in Glendale, Arizona. The women’s team also swept the men’s and women’s indoor competitions, winning by the narrowest margin in the history of Adams State College, to win both the men’s and women’s indoor track and field titles.

MARCH 8, 2008 MEN’S AND WOMEN’S SOCCER Tournament Arou Rono and Jaime Canterbury faced off in Daytona Beach, Florida, the women’s team lost 2-0. Meanwhile, in Daytona Beach, the men’s team claimed their sixth national title, winning by the narrowest margin in the history of Adams State College, to win both the men’s and women’s indoor track and field titles.