APU AT A GLANCE

- Nearly $89 million in financial aid given last year
- 90% of undergraduates receive financial aid
- 12:1 student-to-faculty ratio
- 73% of faculty have terminal degrees
- More than 60 areas of undergraduate study
- Accredited by WASC

Is studying abroad right for me?
You should consider studying abroad if you:
- Would like to experience life and learning in another country.
- Enjoy traveling and exploring other cultures.
- Desire to develop cross-cultural skills.
- Want to gain a global perspective.
- Would like to explore your faith within the context of another culture.

What programs does APU offer?
- Azusa Oxford Semester
- High Sierra Semester
- South Africa Semester
- L.A. Term
- Semester in Spain
- Israel Summer Program (theology)
- Dominican Republic (Spanish)
- Asia Summer Program (business)
- Middle East Studies Program
- Latin America Studies Program
- And many more!

What’s next?
- Get more information about study abroad programs: www.apu.edu/studyabroad/.
- Learn about grants, loans, and scholarships available to you: www.apu.edu/ugadmissions/financialaid/.
- Visit campus and see why APU is a top-ranked Christian university: www.apu.edu/ugadmissions/visit/.
- Save paper! Apply online: www.apu.edu/apply/undergrad/.

We want you at APU!