NOVEMBER 14, 2007 – BARNES & NOBLE, GLENDOURA
SUPPORT APU, 9 A.M. – 11 P.M.; BOOK SIGNING, 6 – 9 P.M.
On November 14, 9 a.m. – 11 p.m., 10 percent of every purchase benefits APU. Bring a voucher, buy a book, and support the university. (Must have voucher for purchase to count. Gift cards and membership purchases excluded.)

From 6 – 9 p.m., meet the featured APU authors below and get your book signed.

Silent God: Finding Him When You Can’t Hear His Voice by Joseph Bentz, Ph.D.
Bentz’s book explores practical ways of getting the noise in our lives – work, media, mental clutter – under control, and considers how God uses silence to accomplish His purposes for us.

A Son Comes Home by Joseph Bentz, Ph.D.
Years after his brother’s tragic death, a young man returns home to face his troubled past. First published in 1999, this award-winning book was placed in the top ten Christian novels of the year by Booklist magazine.

Sheila’s Shop: Working-Class African-American Women Talk About Life, Love, Race, and Hair by Kimberly Battle-Walters Denu, Ph.D.
This valuable ethnographic work takes us into a Southern beauty parlor where working-class African-American women discuss what it means to be strong, successful, and beautiful, and what they think others think of them. Denu augments their verbatim conversations with comments and analysis.

The Company They Keep: C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien as Writers in Community by Diana Pavlac Glyer, Ph.D.
Glyer takes readers into the smoky Oxford offices and noisy pubs where Lewis and Tolkien met to discuss their writings, allowing us to bear witness to the collaborative process by which some of the 20th century’s most popular literary works were born.

Leadership Above the Line: A Character-based Leadership Tool that Leads to Success for You and Your Team by Sarah Sumner, Ph.D.
Sumner encourages leaders to lead and live “above the line” in three categories, as strategists, humanitarians, and diplomats. Learn to increase self-awareness, make sense of confusing situations, and motivate people.

The Original Dr. Steve’s Almanac of Christian Trivia by Steve Wilkens, Ph.D.
This tongue-in-cheek almanac answers questions about things you should have learned in Sunday school but somehow didn’t. Includes quizzes on famous biblical phrases and a guide to theology’s biggest words.
