On November 13, from 7–9 p.m., meet the featured APU authors below and get your book signed!

Azusa Pacific University
by Ken Otto
From the university’s vast photographic archives, Otto tells the story of APU’s fledgling days, multiple mergers, and Christ-centered transformational vision. Establishing a timeline from 1899 to the present, Otto’s pictorial account is an engaging reflection on the university’s vibrant history.

Living Abroad in China
by Stuart and Barbara Strother
The Strothers offer a wealth of practical advice on leaving the United States to make a home in China. With firsthand insight, they cover essential information on navigating the language and culture, finding a home, cost of living, employment, education, health care, and more.

Just How Married Do You Want to Be? Practicing Oneness in Marriage
by Jim and Sarah Sumner, Ph.D.
The Sumners tell the unlikely story of their love and marriage, offering detailed teaching on conflict resolution, managing expectations, getting past hot button issues, and living in Christian community. Through a close examination of often misunderstood biblical teachings, the book offers a fresh perspective on love and marriage.

The Minister’s MBA: Essential Business Tools for Maximum Ministry Success
by George S. Babbes and Michael Zigarelli
Written by two leading professors in Christian management, the book teaches how to apply essential business skills to ministry. Addressing topics such as leadership, innovation, and strategy, the authors bring to life an empowering curriculum designed to supercharge ministry, inspire excellence, and encourage partnership with God for maximum impact.
