OVERVIEW
The CDA conference is a groundbreaking interdisciplinary forum where scholars and practitioners can dialogue and learn about diversity in higher education and how we as Christians respond to the issues.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Conde-Frazier, Eastern University
Conde-Frazier is Vice President of Education and Dean of Esparanza College at Eastern University. She has written in areas of multicultural education, Latina feminist theology, the spirituality of the scholar and issues of justice as they relate to education. She is a co-author of the book, A Many Colored Kingdom: Multicultural Dynamics for Spiritual Formation.

Dr. Terrence J. Roberts, Terrence J. Roberts & Associates
Roberts, a member of the historic Little Rock Nine who integrated Little Rock Central High School during the modern civil rights movement is CEO of Terrence J. Roberts & Associates, a management consultant firm devoted to fair and equitable practices in business and industry. A retired faculty member, he is author of the recently released book Lessons from Little Rock.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION
Early Bird – 250.00 (Deadline: December 18, 2009)
Standard—300.00 / $75* a day (Deadline: March 12, 2010)
On site—375.00

FOR MORE
Call: (626) 815-2029
Email: cdaconference@apu.edu
Visit: www.apu.edu/christiansondiversity