Scholarship is to be created not by compulsion, but by awakening a pure interest in knowledge.
– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Do everything for the glory of God. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

Publications

A journal article was co-authored by Bryanna Martin, International Business major, Dr. Stuart Strother, Professor, School of Business and Management, and Mrs. Barbara Strother.

Presentations

A collection of original poems by Mr. Daniel Robert Baker, English Literature and Philosophy major, was presented at a national conference.

A paper written by Mr. Sean Capener, Cinematic Arts major, was presented at a national conference.

A paper written by Mr. Christian Giamanco, Athletic Training major, and Mr. Keith A. Savage, Athletic Training major, was presented at a national conference.

A paper written by Ms. Samantha Hara, Athletic Training major, and Mr. Matthew Harrelson, Athletic Training major, was presented at a national conference.

Hara, S. & Harrelson, M. (2009, April). A comparison of two types of massage, manual effleurage by a clinician versus self-performed massage with The Stick, and their effects on
A paper written by Ms. Kimberly Wilcox, Journalism major, was presented at a national conference.

Poster Presentations

A poster by Ms. Laurel Bishop, BSN Nursing major, was presented at a conference.

Laurel was also the recipient of the Undergraduate Poster Award.

A poster by Ms. Dameisha King, BSN Nursing major, was presented at a conference.

A poster by Ms. Brittany L. Machado, Liberal Studies major, Mr. Jeremiah T. McMillan, APU alum, and Dr. Annie Y. Tsai, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, was presented at a national conference.

A poster by Ms. Emily Stewart, SN, BSN Nursing major, and Ms. Amber Powell, SN, BSN Nursing major, was presented at a conference.

Scholastic Competitions

The APU Forensics team’s success at the AFA National tournament:

Aly Larson, English major, made it to quarterfinals performing a poetry program encouraging her audience to “get young”.
James Stevenson, communication studies major, took 5th place in Programmed Oral Interpretation, making him one of the top 5 in the country in that event. This event is a mosaic of literature around a theme – his piece wrestled with the question of whether or not racist literature can have any redeeming value.

Five members of the team qualified for a total of 16 entries.

---

For APU undergraduate students: Please send to apuhonors@apu.edu your recent conference presentations, publications, and awards for sharing with the APU community and for inclusion in a University database for internal and external review purposes.

APU Faculty: Please feel free to submit data on behalf of a student. We will contact the student to verify the information. Please also include activities in which you may serve as a co-author, co-presenter, etc. with the student on their scholarly work.

When submitting, please provide:
1) Student name
2) Student expected graduation date (e.g. May 2009)
3) Student major
4) Titles (Dr., Ms, Mrs., Miss, Mr.) & first & last names of co-authors/co-presenters.
5) Institutional affiliations for co-authors/co-presenters not at APU.
6) Department & status (faculty, adjunct, student) for APU co-authors/co-presenters
7) Date & city location for conference presentations or poster presentations.
8) Date, city and state for book publishers.

To assist with our common modified APA format:
1) Please capitalize only the first word in title of paper or publication.
2) Please use italics for paper, journal, and book titles.

Thank you. Vicky R. Bowden, DNSC, RN apuhonors@apu.edu 626-387-5794